COLUMBIA, MISSOURI, MONDAY EVENING, JULY 21, 1919.

NUMBER 274

ANOTHER HOUSE IS ENTERED BY ROBBERS

Thieves Take $26.50 From Students at 513 South Sixth Street.

TWO ROOMS LOOTED

Miss Allene Kolenbach Loses $25 and Loran Harlan $1.50.

A robber entered the home of Clay Schwabe, 513 South Sixth street, yesterday evening while the family was absent and took $25 from a dresser drawer. The money belonged to Miss Allene Kolenbach, a student in the University. The thief also took $1.50 from a pair of trousers belonging to Loran Harlan, also a student.

Policemen C. E. Batterson and Ernest Roland examined the house soon after the robbery had been discovered. Only two rooms, both on the second floor, showed any trace of disorder. In Miss Kolenbach's room the dresser from which the money had been taken was ransacked and the drawers left open. The room occupied by Harlan had also been searched.

The robbery occurred between 7 and 9 o'clock. Miss Kolenbach had gone to attend the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, and was not absent from her room more than two hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwabe returned from the country about 8:30 yesterday evening and left some vegetables on the back porch. They did not enter the house, but it is thought that their return frightened the intruder away before he had time to ransack the house further.

Miss Kolenbach discovered the robbery on her return from church and notified the police.

Mrs. Schwabe said today that nothing further was found missing. The robbery evidently was committed by someone familiar with the surroundings, who knew that no one was home at the time. It appears that money was the object of the intruder as nothing else about the house was disturbed.

About two weeks ago the Dana House was entered by robbers and about $215 worth of clothing was taken. No arrests have been made in this case.

The police are still searching for a man who left a suit of convict's attire in the basement of Troxell's furniture store about a week ago. The only clue in that case was the No. 6663 on the clothes.

CONGRESS WILL ACT

Senators Say Cost of Living Must Be Reduced Materially.

By RAYMOND CLAPPER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 21.—That a demand will soon be made in Congress that the cost of living be reduced was told in a statement to the United Press today.

"This situation is becoming so bad that the party in power must take some definite action very soon, or it will have to take the consequences in the next election," Senator Capper of Kansas, Republican, said today.

Senator Kenyon of Iowa echoed Senator Capper's statement.

A congressional move to reduce the high cost of living was started when Congress authorized the searching out of profiteers in Washington. Conditions have become so acute that government employees are quitting and threaten to impede the work of the government. They will attempt to steady the cost of food, clothing and rent for the wholesale dealers, retailers and consumers.

"It is becoming more and more important than the League of Nations. The high cost of living caused the revolutions now in Europe. Here it is causing more and more trouble," Senator Kenyon declared today.

$100,000 NOT ENOUGH

Additions May Be Made to County Hospital Later, Says H. H. Banks.

The $100,000 voted recently for the erection of the Boone County Public Hospital will not be sufficient to build and equip a hospital such as Boone County should have, H. H. Banks, president of the hospital board, said this morning.

Mr. Banks and N. T. Gentry, secretary of the board, visited five of the largest hospitals in Chicago yesterday and collected information to be used in building the one here.

After their investigation they found that the bond issue here was not enough for an institution such as the county should have. The board will go ahead, however, with the erection of the building, making it as complete as the funds will permit.

It will be constructed in such a manner that additions can be made when funds are available. The preliminary plans will be ready in about two weeks. Complete plans will be completed in time for the bids for the construction to be received about September 1, it is hoped.

WANT INFORMATION ON MEXICO

Senate Committee Takes Up Investigation of Mexican Trouble.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The foreign relations committee today ordered a favorable report on Senator King's resolution asking that the State Department give information on the Mexican situation.

The information desired is on: What steps have been taken to press collection claims of American citizens against the Mexican government, the number of citizens killed in Mexico since Diaz retired, the number of persons who fled from Mexico and the value of their property and the number of people now there and the value of their property.

The State Department was advised today of the robbery of the Atlantic Refining Company of $10,000 last Wednesday.

Secretary Daniels today denied that any portion of the Pacific fleet will be diverted to Mexican waters. Such reports are baseless, he declared.

YOUNG FILIPINO ASKS HELP OF Y. M. C. A.

Would Leave Life of Common Laborer for That of Student.

WANT JOBS LISTED

Employment Secretary Seeks the Aid of Entire Community.

An ambitious young Filipino, working as a common laborer on the roadbed of the Southern Pacific Railroad near Oakland, Cal., makes the following appeal in a letter to Forrest Blankenship, employment secretary of the Y. M. C. A.:

"Having read in the bulletin of the University of Missouri that you are maintaining an employment bureau in connection with the University, I desire to apply for any employment you will offer me.

"I am a poor Filipino student, a graduate of the provincial high school of Vigan, Ilocos Sur, Philippine Islands. At present I am working on the railroad track of the Southern Pacific Company, Oakland, Cal., as a common laborer. I expect that by the end of July I shall be able to save enough money for my railroad fare and books.

"I also expect to matriculate in the College of Arts and Science, University of Missouri, as a prospective student in the School of Business and Public Administration. Being poor, but willing to work, I hope to make my way through.

"I am twenty-one years old and in excellent health."

Father Makes Plea for Son.

The father of a young man who returned from France, where he was gassed, with his lungs injured from the effects of the fumes makes the following appeal for work for his boy, in a letter to Mr. Blankenship.

"My son, William, enlisted for the war in September, 1917; served in France with the Light Field Artillery, being promoted to corporal and then to sergeant in Battery C, 129th Field Artillery; saw active service with the Thirty-fifth Division, and in the Argonne battle was, on October 2, gassed and in the hospital from it.

"He returns home at the age of 20 with lungs slightly impaired, but we hope that he will, in time, be sound again. His one desire is to be able to attend school at the State University. He is a graduate of our high school and, if I do say it, is a splendid young man, both as to character, habits and attainments.

"I doubt if I can finance his course through the University, though I can help some. Is it possible that he can be aided in any way, and can be obtained a position or employment which will enable him to work his way through?

"I will appreciate any help you may be in position to extend and any advice which will aid him. He did his part manfully, and is deserving of such aid and help as can be given."

Big Task Confronts Y. M. C. A.

"A task that requires the co-operation of the entire community confronts the employment bureau of the Y. M. C. A.," said Forrest Blankenship, secretary of the employment bureau. "For the indications are that there will be more working students in the University this fall than ever before.

"Many applications have been coming to me daily for the last two months from all parts of the United States, and some of them come from as far as Hawaii. Many of these applications come from returned soldiers and sailors, who, on account of their time in the service for their country, have not been able to prepare themselves for entry in school. Consequently they must work to pay their expenses.

"So the employment bureau makes this appeal: that those who will need help in the fall list their work as soon as possible at the Y. M. C. A., in order that we may know just how many students we shall have employment for."

AMERICAN CHOCOLATE SAVES BABIES' SIGHT

Starvation Hampers Development of Polish Children's Eye Muscles.

SEE ONLY AT NIGHT

Candy From United States Only Treatment for Disease, Says Doctor.

NEW YORK, July 21.—How American chocolate is curing for blindness in the case of hundreds of children in Poland is the story brought back by Jack Billikopf, who has just returned to America after a stay of several months in that country, where he went to investigate the conditions for the American Jewish Relief Committee.

In the territory where the Polish armies are fighting the Bolsheviks, and in the various large cities of Poland, there are today thousands of children who cannot see at all in the sunlight, Mr. Billikopf says. All day long, and until twilight comes to relieve them, they are afflicted by a constant twitching of the eyelids. Their disease, which broke out during the period of the German occupation, was named "huenkerkrankheit," or "hen-sickness," but prevented the development of the muscles of their eyes, it is said.

The disease becomes total blindness, in aggravated cases. Its only cure is proper nourishment. But it takes a long time to overcome "huenkerkrankheit," because of the terrible condition in which the children of Poland are today.

Anything more pitiable than the sight of a large group of little children unable to see, and not understanding their pain, cannot be imagined, Mr. Billikopf says. In Vilna, his own birthplace, he visited one of the institutions where American aid had already come, through the American Jewish Relief Committee. The children were in the courtyard, behind the hospital. They were not running about and playing, as normal children do, but lying still on mats on the ground. He says they were the only altogether silent group of children that he had ever seen.

As he entered, with the doctor in charge of the institution, the children turned their eyes upon them. Then it was noticeable that they were entirely unable to control the action of their eyelids. Some of them were able to keep their eyes open for only a few seconds at a time.

American chocolate, because of its nutritive properties, is the best prescription for the disease, according to the physician in charge of these children. The arrival of food from the United States had checked the disease, he told Mr. Billikopf. A total cure can be effected in most cases, if America continues to send help to the children. At present, the number of candidates for the chocolate treatment is far in excess of the chocolate on hand.

Another tragic sight, Mr. Billikopf says, was that of hundreds of child-beggars, who creep like infants through the streets of Warsaw, Vilna, and other large cities, because they had not the strength to stand upright.

HOLD J. BARLEYCORN'S FUNERAL

Christian Endeavor Performs Last Rites in Honor of Departed Resident.

The funeral services of John Barleycorn, formerly a resident of Columbia, but for the last few years making his home in St. Louis, Milwaukee and other points, were held last night at the Christian Endeavor of the Christian Church.

As Mr. Barleycorn had not been embalmed, it was deemed expedient to conduct services without the presence of the deceased. Pallbearers brought the spirit of the late citizen into the church, and all of the formalities of the ceremony were performed. Ross McReynolds read a touching history of the dead man. After the services, the pallbearers bore the spirit from the church.

Services at the Broadway Methodist Church were held in the basement yesterday. The rest of the interior of the church is being renovated and redecorated. The walls are being tinted a light brown color, and all the pews are being cleaned. The work will require about two weeks more.

The Rev. M. A. Hart, pastor of the Christian Church, will leave tomorrow for Mt. Sterling, Ky., for a few weeks' vacation. There will be regular preaching at the church during his absence.

The Rev. W. W. Elwang leaves Columbia this week on his summer vacation. There will be no more preaching services at the Presbyterian Church until the last Sunday in August. Sunday school services will be continued.

Doctor Elwang preached yesterday morning on the elements that should go to make up a Christian's vacation, showing how a vacation would increase one's efficiency mentally, morally and physically. His text was, "Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place and rest awhile."

Sentiment Against Blacks Due to Alleged Attacks on White Women.

BULLETIN

By United Press. WASHINGTON, July 21.—Soldiers and marines were ordered to patrol the streets here today in an effort to prevent more fighting.

Louis N. Brownlow, commander of the District of Columbia, today issued a statement urging the people to remain calm and requesting those who have no business down town to remain at home.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Following a night of fighting between the whites and negroes here, five negroes passed the Naval House shortly after noon today and shot several times at sailors stationed there. All of the shots went wild. Automobiles commanded by citizens pursued them for some time, but they all escaped.

Several negro uprisings have been reported by a near-by Maryland town. Major Pullman of the Washington police was expected to confer with the military authorities today to guard against another possible insurrection. Disturbances were common all day on the streets.

There was a clash in front of the District Building, which corresponds to a city hall. One negro was chased around the Treasury Building. Another was chased in front of the White House.

Soldiers, sailors and marines were among the white belligerents. A crowd of whites attacking a group of negroes on Pennsylvania avenue was kept at bay on a side street by an increase in number of negroes.

The trouble arose when a negro attacked an officer. A crowd immediately surrounded him. He was rescued by the police.

The feeling against the negroes has been growing for about two weeks, with the reports of attacks on white women by negroes.

Mr. Davis received a letter today from George Hackman, state auditor, explaining that the delay in sending the accounts in full was due to the fact that Mr. Hoehn's mother died while he was here making the audit, and that Mr. Hoehn was so unnerved by the shock it was impossible to make the report sooner.
